(Ord. No. 91-42, § 3, 7-9-91)

Sec. 2-2-254. - Millage dedicated.

- (a) There is hereby dedicated to fund additional services and programs for abused, neglected, economically disadvantaged or at-risk children an amount equal to not less than one-twentieth (1/20) of a mill in 1991 which amount shall increase annually to one-third (1/3) of a mill in 1995 and thereafter, which shall be based upon the taxable value of all land in Manatee County.
- (b) The amount of revenue to be generated by the dedicated millage shall be reported to the advisory board by the director as soon as reasonably possible after the property appraiser certifies the tax roll and shall be accounted for by the clerk separate and apart from all other county funds.
- (c) The annual increase between 1991 and 1995 shall be based upon approximately equal incremental increases as finally determined by the county after considering the recommendations of the advisory board.
- (d) The dedicated millage shall not replace or supplant existing funding and may be expended only for funding additional programs and services for children, and in particular, early childhood intervention programs in accordance with the provisions of this article.
- (e) Any funds derived from the dedicated millage not used during any fiscal year and all interest earned on such funds shall be accounted for and used only for the purposes established in this article for the dedicated millage.

(Ord. No. 91-42, § 4, 7-9-91)

Sec. 2-2-255. - Expenditures authorized.

It is the intent of this article that the funds generated by the dedicated millage shall be used to fund additional services and programs for abused, neglected, economically disadvantaged and at-risk children as provided in Resolution R-90-169, this article and as more specifically determined by subsequent proceedings of the county.

The dedicated millage may be expended for programs and services which may include but shall not be limited to the following purposes:

- (1) To provide and maintain in Manatee County such guidance, psychological, or psychiatric clinics for juveniles as the county determines are needed for the general welfare of Manatee County.
- (2) To provide for the care of dependent juveniles and to provide such other services for all juveniles as the county determines are needed for the general welfare of Manatee County.
- (3) To allocate and provide funds for agencies in Manatee County which are operated for the benefit of juveniles, provided they are not under the exclusive jurisdiction of the public school system.
- (4) To collect information and statistical data which will be helpful to the county in deciding the needs of juveniles and to develop techniques for monitoring the efficacy of funded programs and services including but not limited to the gathering of data, measuring outcomes, goal effectiveness, research.
- (5) To lease such real estate and lease or purchase such equipment and personal property as are needed to execute the foregoing programs and services.
- (6) To provide and maintain in Manatee County such programs and services directed toward developing, maintaining and restoring the integrity of the family where such programs and services are consistent with the scope and purpose of this article and Resolution R-90-169.
- (7) To provide prenatal care programs where such programs will serve to reduce the problems of potentially at-risk children.
- (8) To employ and pay, on a part-time or full-time basis, personnel needed to execute the foregoing programs and services.
- (9) To provide for administrative expenses limited to a children's services coordinator, children's services coordinator clerical support staff and operating supplies, directly related to tasks necessary to fulfill the scope and purposes of this article, in an amount not to exceed ten (10) per cent of the annual dedicated millage for that fiscal year, to be determined at the time of budget adoption.

Such children's services may be provided in accordance with the provisions of this article and such rules, policies and procedures as may be established by resolution of the county, which may include but shall not be limited to programs providing for grants to not-for-profit agencies for the reimbursement of expenditures for operational and overhead expenses for the creation, development and implementation of programs, grants to not-for-profit agencies or children based upon funding all or a portion of the cost of services rendered, the purchase of services or, where children's services can most economically and efficiently be provided by county, through the establishment of county-run programs.

(Ord. No. 91-42, § 5, 7-9-91; Ord. No. 97-30, § 1, 2-18-97)

Sec. 2-2-256. - Children's services advisory board.

- (a) Advisory board established. There is hereby established the Manatee County Children's Services Advisory Board which shall be appointed by and serve at the pleasure of the county. To the extent possible the advisory board shall be comprised of:
 - (1) A physician, preferably a pediatrician;
 - (2) A licensed mental health professional;
 - (3) A member of the NAACP;
 - (4) Five (5) child advocates who are not affiliated with any agency receiving county funds;
 - (5) One criminal justice representative;

- (6) One school board member;
 - (7) One representative from health and rehabilitative services;
 - (8) One representative from United Way of Manatee County; and
 - (9) Judge of the family law division.
- (b) Terms.
- (1) Except as provided herein all terms shall be for a period of three (3) years and continue until a successor has been appointed, which term shall be deemed to commence on October 1 of each respective year.
 - (2) To achieve staggered terms, the terms of three (3) members, including one child advocate, shall expire at the end of an initial two-year period; the terms of four (4) members, including one child advocate, shall expire at the end of an initial four-year period. The initial terms of the two (2) additional children's services advisory board members provided for under Ordinance 94-28 shall expire on July 9, 1996 and July 9, 1997.
 - (3) All members of the advisory board shall be residents of Manatee County meeting the qualifications of an elector, except that the judicial position may be filled by the family law judge serving in Manatee County without regard to residency.
 - (4) Members shall be eligible for reappointment for successive terms without limitation.
 - (5) The county may remove any member who, without reasonable excuse, fails to attend three (3) consecutive meetings.
 - (6) Members may be removed without cause by a majority plus one vote of the board of county commissioners when it is determined that it is necessary and in the best interest of the county and the efficient functioning of the advisory committee to remove such members. The advisory board may recommend removal of a member to the county based upon an affirmative vote of eight (8) members of the advisory board.
 - (7) Any member who has been selected based upon serving in a representative capacity for an entity or agency who resigns or is no longer affiliated with such entity or agency shall provide notice to the board of county commissioners of a change in the member's status. Taking into consideration the work of the advisory board and the activities and proceedings schedule by the advisory board, the county may ask such representative to continue until an orderly transition may be arranged and at such time as the county deems to be in the best interest of the advisory board or the county may declare the position vacant and fill the vacancy by appointment as soon as reasonably possible. Such appointment shall be for the unexpired term of the vacated office.
 - (8) If any member of the advisory board is removed, dies or becomes disqualified, the position shall be deemed vacant and such vacancy shall be filled by appointment of the county. Any such appointment shall be for the unexpired term of the vacated position.
- (c) Rules and procedures.
- (1) The advisory board shall hold meetings as needed to fulfill its duties, but the advisory board shall hold at least four (4) meetings each year.
 - (2) A majority of the active members of the advisory board shall constitute a quorum.
 - (3) All meetings shall be open to the public.
 - (4) Formal recommendations of the advisory board to the county commissioners shall be based upon the vote of not less than a majority of a quorum present and voting.
 - (5) The advisory board shall have the authority to elect such officers, including a chairperson and a vice-chairperson, and promulgate such internal procedures and rules as may be necessary to conduct the business and affairs of the advisory board, which shall not be in conflict with the general law, this article or procedures and policies established by the board of county commissioners.

- (6) Every member of the advisory board shall be required to disclose any employment with or position as an officer or director of any entity applying for or receiving funds from the millage dedicated to children's services.
 - (7) Members of the advisory board will disclose, in the manner provided by F.S. § 112.3143, the affiliation of the member or the member's spouse with any organization applying through the advisory board for funding, which shall be limited to any membership or affiliation within the last calendar year.
 - (8) No member of the advisory board shall incur any expenditures chargeable to the county without the prior written approval of the director.
- (d) Powers and duties. The advisory board shall have the power and duty to make recommendations to the county regarding the expenditure of the dedicated millage, to consult with agencies dedicated to the welfare of children to the end that the overlapping of services will be prevented; and such other duties as may from time to time be assigned by ordinance or resolution of the board of county commissioners.

In order to accomplish those purposes, subject to policies and procedures established by the county, the children's services advisory board shall have in addition to the powers, duties and authority assigned elsewhere in this article, the authority to:

- (1) Make independent investigations and gather data pertaining to the needs of children and ways of meeting those needs including those services designed to preserve the unity and integrity of the family and parental relationships.
- (2) Consider and recommend innovative and creative programs required to effectuate the intent of the children's services referendum.
- (3) Make recommendations to the board of county commissioners with respect to modification of programs.
- (4) Develop and recommend monitoring and evaluation procedures and methods for providing accountability and guidelines to assure that the dedicated millage is appropriately used.
- (5) Make recommendations and investigations to assure that the dedicated millage is allocated wisely and used effectively.
- (6) Collect data pertaining to other sources of funding available for children's services.
- (7) Identify and make recommendations to the county to clarify and define services for children as contemplated by Resolution R-90-169.

(Ord. No. 91-42, § 6, 7-9-91; Ord. No. 94-28, § 1, 6-14-94; Ord. No. 99-30, § 1, 4-6-99)

Sec. 2-2-257. - Needs assessment; establishment of funding priorities.

- (a) The advisory board shall submit to the board of county commissioners by January 30 of each year an annual report which will be made available to the public and include a plan for children's services. For fiscal year 1991-92, the plan shall be submitted as soon as reasonably possible. The plan shall include a needs assessment indicating the advisory board's determination of the needs of children indicating the most serious problems affecting or with a high degree of potential for harm to individual children as well as Manatee County's most serious problems by apparent number of children affected. The plan will also identify the advisory board's preliminary determination of the nature and types of programs and services that should receive funding from the dedicated millage.

In developing the plan for children's services the advisory board shall solicit such reports, data and materials from local, state or national agencies, both public and private, in an effort to avoid duplication of work, expedite the work of the advisory board and confirm or rebut the findings of such agencies. The advisory board may conduct such hearings and provide for investigations including but not limited to surveys and interviews of experts, professionals, agencies and individuals, including children and parents, as may be necessary and practical to develop the plan for children's services.

The advisory board shall include in its investigations the collection of information and data pertinent to the problems of families in need of services and the methods to the procedures for implementing plans of services designed to preserve to the highest extent appropriate and feasible the integrity of the family unit including those procedures and strategies that distinguish the problems of truants, runaways and children beyond the control of their parents from programs and services designed to meet the needs of abandoned, abused and neglected children.

(Ord. No. 91-42, § 7, 7-9-91)

Sec. 2-2-258. - Procedures for allocation of funds.

- (a) Announcement of plan. As soon as reasonably possible after submission of the advisory board's report and plan for children's services, the county shall approve or modify the plan and announce the availability of funding for the upcoming fiscal year. The announcement will include a description of services and programs recommended for funding from the dedicated millage. The announcement will include information pertaining to funding applications, rules and procedures pertaining to the award of funds and applicable dates for submission of applications and all details pertinent thereto.
- (b) Funding request evaluation. Evaluations of agencies submitting funding applications shall include, but not be limited to, site visits, interviews, and application review.

Applications received will be assessed on the basis of specified criteria and will include, but not be limited to, the following items:

- (1) Organization's capability. The qualifications and experience of the applicant in providing quality human services and the agency's financial capability.
- (2) Need for service. Appropriate goals and objectives in response to the advertisement of funding availability.
- (3) Soundness of methodology. The goal and objectives, description of services with timeline and documented coordination with other service providers.
- (4) Evaluation. The program's process and outcome objectives, data collection system and evaluation design.
- (5) Cost effectiveness. The proportion of budget applied to direct services, funds from other sources, funds requested, current and projected long range efficiency.
- (6) Children and families served. The extent to which the application addresses services to meet identified needs of the target population.
- (7) Neighborhood-based initiatives. The extent and degree to which the application focuses on a local area or neighborhood.
- (8) Response to a specified strategy. The applicant's identification of and appropriate response to a specified primary strategy.
- (9) Application. The relative completeness, clarity and conciseness of the response to all required items in the funding announcement and application.
- (10) Applications shall address the level of service provided in 1990-91 by the agency or any other agency for the specific program or service. If the application is for the purpose of expanding or providing additional services, the sources and amount of funding provided in 1990-91 and subsequent years shall be identified. If the application is for the purpose of establishing new programs or services, detailed information pertaining to the manner in which such new programs or services may be distinguished shall be included.

- (c) Funding recommendation. Recommendations for funding, once approved by the children's services advisory board, will be presented to the board of county commissioners by the chairman of the children's services advisory board or his/her designee. This report shall be written or verbal, as requested by the board of county commissioners, presented no later than September 30 of each year except that for fiscal year 1991-92, as soon as reasonably possible, which date or dates shall be established in the announcement provided for in subsection (a) above.

The recommendation will include a description of current children's services in Manatee County; an assessment of how current services are fulfilling the needs of the children in Manatee County; the advisory board's analysis and conclusions with respect to compliance with the requirement that the dedicated millage be used to fund additional services and programs and not to replace or supplant existing funding; and a recommended budget and funding levels for children's services for the next fiscal year.

- (d) Program follow-up. The children's services advisory board or its designee shall review and make recommendations pertaining to the funding application, and request for proposals, the funding agreements and the development of the monitoring and evaluation procedure which shall be prepared by the department.

The children's services advisory board shall be apprised of all reports as a result of monitoring programs implemented by the department pursuant to this article.

(Ord. No. 91-42, § 8, 7-9-91)

Sec. 2-2-259. - Final recommendations and final determinations.

The commission shall, during the hearings and proceedings required for adoption of the county's annual budget, make final determinations with respect to the allocation of the dedicated millage. Any additional programs funded after adoption of the county's budget shall be approved only after notice and public hearing conducted in the manner required for the adoption of county's ordinances.

The specific allocation of funds authorized by inclusion in the county's official budget adopted prior to the commencement of each fiscal year or any subsequent amendment to the budget shall not establish a right, entitlement or benefit to any individual or agency. Disbursement of the dedicated millage shall be only in accordance with agreements, rules and procedures as may be adopted and otherwise authorized by the county.

If any portion of the dedicated millage is provided to an agency to reimburse the agency for all or a portion of the cost of providing a program or services then this article and any agreement with such agency shall provide that all financial, business and membership records pertaining to such agency, except such records which are confidential pursuant to the laws of Florida, shall be open and available to the county for audit and inspection and such agency may be required to provide audited financial statements pursuant to a grant or funding agreement with the county.
