Are Down Payment and/or Closing Costs the only missing pieces to help you realize your Dream of Homeownership?

Many Home Buyers can afford a monthly mortgage payment but may not be able to pay all or a portion of the down payment and/or closing costs needed to purchase a home. Eligible Very-Low and Low Income applicants can receive assistance through the CDBG program to pay these costs. The homebuyer must agree to reside in the home as their primary residence. The program provides second mortgage loans to purchase new and existing single-family homes, townhomes, condominiums and Manufactured homes that are constructed according to a code administered by the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD Code) and it must have been built after June 1994.

Mobile homes are not eligible.
