

Certificate of Recognition

Board of County Commissioners
Manatee County, Florida

Presented to Daniel West

Daniel West, a native of Palmetto, Florida, has served as the Manatee County Fair Manager since 2003, the Assistant Fair Manager from 2001 to 2003, and a former agriculture teacher at Palmetto High School, and continues to be involved in many other local organizations, volunteering his time to help others and serve his community.

Daniel served on the Federation's Board of Directors from 2005 to 2014, and as the Federation's President from 2012 to 2013, and was recently selected as the Florida Federation of Fairs Executive Director.

At the 2018-19 Florida Federation of Fairs annual dinner, Daniel was inducted into the Federation's Hall of Fame, for which honorees are chosen based on their commitment and contribution to the furtherance of the mission of the Federation to increase the quality of Florida's agricultural fairs.

This certificate is awarded in honor of Daniel's induction into the Hall of Fame and for his service to the Manatee County Fair and to the community.

Presented this 23rd day of July 2019.
